Verse 1 :

G                    D            Em
Stuck inside a house I built
C                                    D                    Am
Locked the doors and closed the shutters
G                                    D                    Em
With no strength left to cry for help
C                    D                    Am
I hid in bed under the covers

Verse 2 :

G                    D            Em
Stuck inside a shade of blue
C                    D            Am
Sadness was my only comfort
G                                    D                    Em
I didn't know that only You
C                                    D                    Am
Could fill my world with all the colors

          D                                  C
That while my heart was fast asleep
D                          Em                  G  C
You were resurrecting me
  G
I thought that I would never breathe
          D                                  C
I thought the pain would never leave
D                                  Em                  G          C
But You're redeeming everything

Verse 3 :

G                                  D          Em
Now there's a dawn at every turn
C                                  D          Am
You speak to me in new beginnings
G                                  D          Em
A ray of sun to heal the hurt
C                                  D                  Am
The music stops but You're still singing

Chorus 1 :

                                  G
This is my awakening
          D                                  C
That while my heart was fast asleep
D                                  Em                  G  C
You were resurrecting me
  G
I thought that I would never breathe
          D                                  C
I thought the pain would never leave
D                                  Em                  G
But You're redeeming everything
Everything, everything

Chorus 2 :

                  G
This is my awakening
                  G
I'm never going back to sleep
                  Em                  C
How could I after what I've seen
                  G/D
This is my awakening
                  G/D
There's color now in everything
                  C                  Am
Color now in everything
                  G
This is my awakening
                  G
I'm never going back to sleep
                  Em                  C
How could I after what I've seen
                  G/B
This is my awakening
There's color now in everything
                  G/B          C                  G
Color now in everything
