```
[Verse 1]
  D
                      G2
           Α
Before you close your eyes to sleep
         F#m
                 Em7
I have a promise still to keep
              G2
As I hold you in my arms
              D/F# G2
I pray your little frame grows strong
         Bm
                    F#m
                                Em7
And that faith take hold while you are young
           G2
This is my prayer for you
[Chorus 1]
Em7/A
                   Em7/A
Hold my hand, I'll teach you the way to go
            D/F#
                  Bm
                               F#m
Through the joys, through the tears
The journey of these years
        Am7
                  G
May you trust Him till the end
                  G2
        Am7
May you trust Him in the end
[Verse 2]
              A/C#
                     G/B
                                D/A
This world is not as it should be
               F#m
        Bm
                     Em7
But the Savior opens eyes to see
                 G2
           Bm
                          D
All that's beautiful and true
           Α
                      G
Oh may His light fill all you are
        Bm
                 F#m
                        Em7
And the jewel of wisdom crown your heart
     Bm
This is my prayer for you
