I don't know how the story ends
But I know that You finished it
I close my eyes and just let go
And fall into my only Hope

There's safety in the falling
When I surrender fully
I put all my hope in You

Bridge

The only thing I know
Is God you're in control
In every little detail
You are close
I'll never be alone
And here in the unknown
The power of Your presence
Fills my soul, now
Everything I know
Is God you're in control
