Verse 1:
         C                                F2
When the weight of the world begins to fall
       C/G                     F2
On the Name of Jesus I will call
      C                      F2
For I know my God is in control
        C/G                F2
And His purpose is unshakable
Chorus:
C                        F2
  Doesn't matter what I feel
                        Am7
Doesn't matter what I see
                      F2
My hope will always be
                      C
In Your promises to me
                           F2
Now I'm casting out all fear
                            Am7
for Your love has set me free
                      F2
My hope will always be
                      C
In Your promises to me
