Chords My God Is So Big

By : Bethel Music Key : D

Verse

```
   D
My-God is so big, so strong and so mighty

             A                                    D
There's nothing my God cannot do.

       D
My-God is so big, so strong and so mighty

               A                                  D
There's nothing my God cannot do.

             G
The mountains are His,

             D
The valleys are His,

             A                                D
The stars are His handiwork too

             G
The mountains are His,

             D
The valleys are His,

             A                                D
The stars are His handiwork too

       D
My God is so big, so strong and so mighty

                A                                 D
There's nothing my God cannot do
