

Growing Up chords by Ed sheeran

By : Ed Sheeran key : E

[Intro]

E A E G# A

[Verse 1]

A E B
They say boys don't cry
A
But your daddy shed a lot of tears
E G#
They say I should be a strong man
A
But baby, I'm still filled with fear
E B
Sometimes I don't know who I am
A
Sometimes I question why I'm here
E G#
I just wanna be a good dad
A
Will I be? I have no idea

[Verse 2]

E
They say girls shouldn't be tough
A
And moms should raise their kids at home
E G#
But baby, I know that that isn't true
A
Cause your momma's the toughest person I know
E
I wanna raise you to be like her
A
And watch you show the world how to do it on your own
E G#
I'm still tryna figure out who I am
A E

CHORDMUSIC.INFO

I don't wanna mess this up or do this wrong

[Verse 3]

E A
I'm gonna be there for your first breath
E
I don't know if I'll be there for your first step
G#
I can promise you that I'll try to work less
A
But the tour's routed, and I got this album
E
Put in so many hours, and I just want the outcome
A
To be something that I can look back and I can be proud of

[Verse 4]

E G#
Don't wanna be a dad that's living in FaceTime
A E
But I've got a world to sing to and you at the same time
E A
I won't spoil you, you can trust that
A E
For your sweet 16, you get a bus pass
E G#
Had your heart broken? Been there, done that
A
I love you and I can't give you enough of that

[Verse 5]

E
Give back to community that raised you up
A
Read Langston Hughes, I suggest "A Raisin in the Sun"
E G#
Listen to Sam Cooke, a change gon' come
A E
You put the work in, don't worry about the praise, my love
E A

Don't try to change the world, find something that you love

A

And do it every day

E

G#

Do that for the rest of your life

A

And eventually, the world will change

[Chorus]

[Ed Sheeran]

A E A

I'll be patient, one more month

A E G# A E

You'll wrap your fingers round my thumb

E A

Times are changing, I know, but who am I if

E G# A

I'm the person you become

A E A

If I'm still growing up, up, up, up

A E A

I'm still growing up, up, up, up

E

I'm still growing up

[Verse 6]

E A

I recommend that you read The Alchemist

A E

Listen to your teachers, but cheat in calculus

E A

Tell the truth, regardless of the consequence

A E

And every day, give your momma a compliment

[Verse 7]

E

B

Take your girl to the prom

B A

But don't get too drunk hanging out the limo

A E G#

Slow dance with your woman in your arms

G# A

Sneak her in after but boy, you better tiptoe

A F#m G#

Don't wake your mom up, do yoga, learn 'bout karma

A B

Find god, but leave the dogma

[Verse 8]

E A

The quickest way to happiness? Learning to be selfless

A

Ask more questions, talk about yourself less

E G#

Study David Bowie, James Bowen and 2Pac

A E

Watch the sun set with best friends from a rooftop

[Verse 9]

E A

Wear a helmet, don't be stupid

A

Jaywalk, but look before you do it

A E G#

If it snows, go outside, build a jump, get some help

A

Get a sled, thrash the hill with your friends till it melts

[Verse 10]

A E

Go to festivals, camp, fall in love and dance

E A

You're only young once, my love, one, this is your chance

A E G#

Take risks, cause life moves so fast
