```
VERSE
           E
A family hiding from the storm
           A                   C#m
Found no place at the keeper’s door
            A                E
It was for this a Child was born
           C#m                 B
To save a world so cold and hollow
The sleeping town did not know
           A           C#m
That lying in a manger low
           A              E
A Savior King who had no home
     C#m                B
Has come to heal our sorrows

CHORUS
           A            E
Is there room in your heart
           A            E
Is there room in your heart
           A            E
Is there room in your heart
     B               A E
For God to write His story

Shepherds counting sheep in the night
         A             C#m
Do not fear the glory light
           A              E
You are precious in His sight
         C#m                B
God has come to raise the lowly,

CHORUS
           A            E
Is there room in your heart
           A            E

Is there room in your heart
           A             E
Is there room in your heart
     B                A E
For God to write His story
         A           E
You can come as you are
            A        E
But it may set you apart
                A            E
When you make room in your heart
      B                           A
And trade your dreams for His glory
       A           C#m          A                     E
Make room in your heart, Make room in your heart

Mother holds the Promise tight
         A                  C#m
Every wrong will be made right
               A                           E
The road is straight and the burden’s light
            C#m                B
For in His hands He holds tomorrow
